Special Notes

- Optional Attraction

5:30 am - 7:00 am: Visiting Fisheries Ghat

After exploring the city if you are not catching the evening flight to come back to Dhaka then we offer you to take a tour at sadarghat unlike in Dhaka, is a place where all fishermen gather to sale their catch, the sea treasures, caught overnight or during the stay in the sea. It's an overwhelming place as you will find a busy marketplace and people in rush carrying fish's baskets, coming loud noise of selling fish from different directions, carrying ice blocks, gigantic fishes and many stories.

7:00 am to 7:30 am: Having Breakfast with locals.

If you are adventurous, you may have breakfast in the local restaurant with bone soup and Tandoori. Having breakfast in the local restaurant also will give you an experience of how, in Bangladesh, start our day with delicious breakfast.

- Merging this tour with Chittagong Ship-breaking yard tour.

Any one has limited time but wants to cover the Shipbreaking yard as well as the full-day sightseeing tour, in that case, we can deduct some places from the city tour and include the ship-breaking yard depending on the high tide in the Chittagong coastal line. As we may not be able to have a chance to visit the shipbreaking yard tour from the land side (front side) due to some recent restriction applied by the owners association of the shipbreaking yard. Please contact us for the adjusted plan.

- What to ware ?

As Bangladesh is a majority Muslim country and has a conservative attitude toward dress. In this regard, a modest dress is always welcomed. In the metropolitan cities western dress will not be any problem but in the rural area better to be a bit modestly dressed to receive respect from the locals.

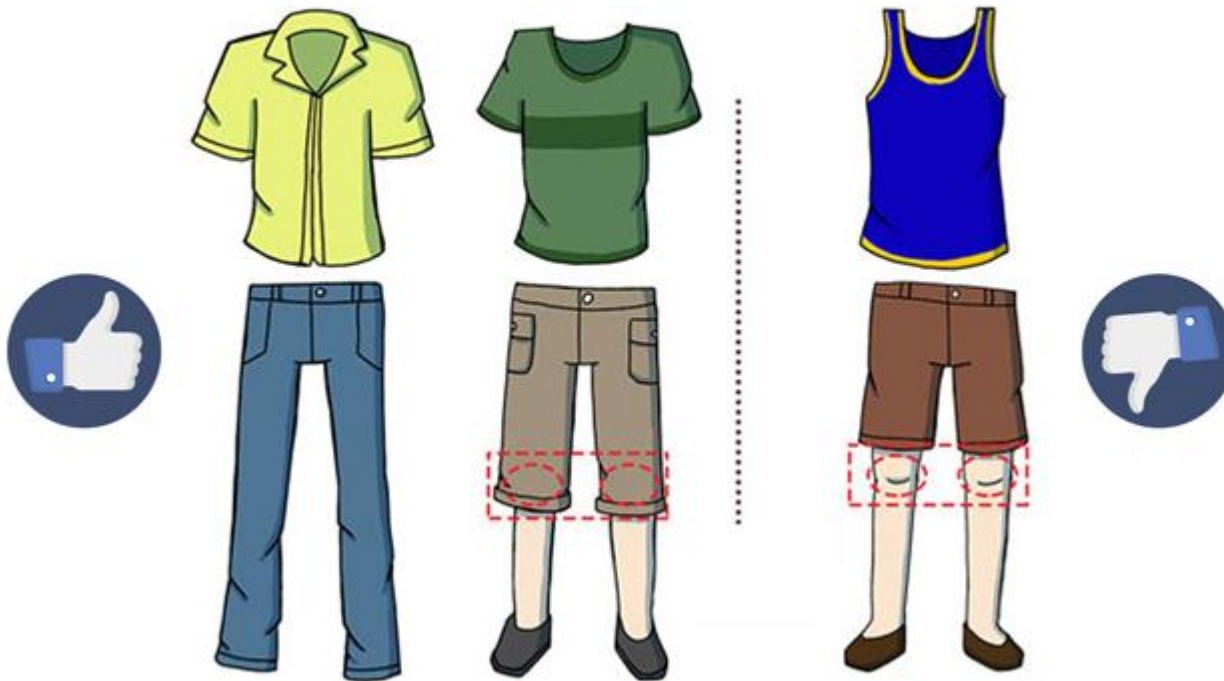

Dress code for women

If you cannot avoid wearing the inappropriate clothes for temple/mosque/church visits like the above, bring a shawl and a big piece of cloth to cover your shoulders and your knees.

Dress code for men
