Village Home Stay

Tour Itinerary

- Day 1: Pick up and transfer to village via old capital of Bengal:

Our guide will pick you up from your residence/hotel at 7 am to avoid the Dhaka office hour so that you can get off the bustling city. We will be heading to Sonargoan. We will stop at Sonargona and The lost city Panam Nagar and continue driving toward Boidder Bazar our car will drop us here and it will come back to Dhaka. From there we will hire a boat to go the one of the isolated char name Moaddar char. After getting off the boat we will ride on electric rickshaw and we will cross the hole island to reach our destination where will stay overnight. During this 30 mins of rickshaw ride will give a true sense of village life of Bangladesh. This island is also very popular for Goose farming domestically. You will see villagers harvesting crops and planting fields anew, flocks of animals gathering, and gaggles of geese scrabbling about. Kids played after school cricket, and families spent time winding up their day. Overnight at village home. If you are lucky if there is any marriage going on that village you can experience also the whole sptep by step marriage program.

- Day 2: Return To Dhaka via Arai Hazar:

Wake up very early in the morning to experience how the villagers start their life. The kids go to Madrasa, the woman milk the cow, the farmer goes to the field and the fisher man comes to market with their fish to sell. We will go the local market to buy our vegetable, fish, and other item to cook it for our lunch. And thus you will have an idea how a village woman preper their meal. So the tour will convert into cooking lesson tour also. After luch we will cross the river again for the awaiting car at Khakanda (the other part of the island.) to come to Dhaka. Drop at your place/hotel with an exotic experience you had last two days.

Special Notes

- Children in the village

During your stay at the village sometimes curious village children will be always around you for candy don't be bothered for that rather taking it as fun. They will observe you in so deeply and comparing their skin color with you. To discover their lives and culture and mix with them closely it is better to carry some candies (as much as possible) for kids at least it will be charity work.

- Basic facilities for accommodation

The village you will stay in please bear in mind that we will be unable to provide all the facilities that you get in the city hotel. It is hard to find western-style commode in the toilette in all the houses we welcome the guest for overnight but there will be a clean Indian style low commode.

- Allergies to the food

During your confirmation of the tour please inform us if you allergic to any food before moving to the village we have to advise our host family earlier.

- What to ware ?

As Bangladesh is a majority Muslim country and has a conservative attitude toward dress. In this regard, a modest dress is always welcomed. In the metropolitan cities western dress will not be any problem but in the rural area better to be a bit modestly dressed to receive respect from the locals.

To show respect to religious places, You are requested to wear modest clothes to enter the mosques included on the tour. It is not possible to visit mosques wearing shorts. Women need to cover hair and arms. Also, need to leave your shoes outside while visiting a mosque or a temple.

Dress code for women

If you cannot avoid wearing the inappropriate clothes for temple/mosque/church visits like the above, bring a shawl and a big piece of cloth to cover your shoulders and your knees.

Dress code for men

- Taking Photos

In general, people like to be in the frame of foreigners even sometimes feel very proud to be captured and give a willing pose in front of the camera which you will not find anywhere in the world. However, it is better to take permission before taking any pictures especially of any young girls, soldiers and tribal people.
